

Community First Bank of Indiana Adds Pete Smith to its Board of Directors

Community First Bank of Indiana announces the addition of, Pete Smith, to its Board of Directors.

“On behalf of Community First Bank, its current board of directors, shareholders and employees, I am happy to welcome Pete Smith to our board of directors. We are confident that Pete’s experience in education, coaching and business, combined with his deep knowledge of and involvement in the Hamilton County area will provide tremendous support to our growth plans in Noblesville and Westfield. Pete’s dedication to his community and those in it mirror those of our Community First Bank of Indiana. Thanks Pete, for joining our team!” said Robb Blume, President & CEO.

Smith is a graduate from Bethel College in Mishawaka and retired from education in June of 2016. That same month he started in Business Development as a Consultant for Indianapolis-based Performance Services, an engineering company specializing in Design Build, Solar Energy, and Guaranteed Energy Savings opportunities for school corporations and municipalities.

Outside of his prowess in the education world, Smith locally served on the Noblesville Boys & Girls Club Board, is a 20-year member of the Hamilton County 50 Club, and was selected a recipient of the Indianapolis Colts Community Quarterback for giving back and strengthening the Hamilton County community in 2007. He chairs several of the Noblesville Elks Lodge committee and served six years as an officer. He is the past president of The Bridgewater Club Advisory Board, as well as an active member of the Bryce William Mitchell Memorial Foundation Board.

Community First Bank was chartered in 2003 in Kokomo, Indiana where they currently have three branches. Expansion into Hamilton County began in 2015 with the opening of a Loan Production Office in Noblesville. In 2017, this office was transitioned into a full service branch. Plans to expand further into Westfield are well underway and a branch is expected to be open by the end of 2018. Additional information can be found at www.cfbindiana.com.
