Community First Bank of Indiana Adds Monica Peck to its Board of Directors

Community First Bank of Indiana announces the addition of, Monica Peck, to its Board of Directors.

“On behalf of Community First Bank, its board of directors, shareholders and employees, I am excited and proud to announce the addition of Monica Peck to our board. We are confident that Monica’s experience in the business world, combined with her passion and commitment to her community will be of great value as CFB pursues its growth strategy in Hamilton County. Thank you Monica, for joining Community First Bank. We look forward to working together to make Hamilton County and CFB better.”
Said Robb Blume, President & CEO.

Peck is a graduate of Noblesville High School and Indiana University’s Kelley School of Business. She is the former co-owner of Hare Auto Group and now, along with her husband, manage a number of commercial real estate properties. Monica has been involved in numerous community organizations including, Noblesville Schools, Noblesville Parks Foundation, Boys and Girls Club of Noblesville and the Noblesville Chamber of Commerce.

Monica has also been the recipient of several prestigious awards including “Top 40 Business People Under 40” awarded by the IBJ (Indiana Business Journal), and “Business Person of the Year” which is awarded by the Noblesville Chamber of Commerce.

Community First Bank was chartered in 2003 in Kokomo, Indiana where they currently have three branches. Expansion into Hamilton County began in 2015 with the opening of a Loan Production Office in Noblesville. In 2017, this office was transitioned into a full service branch. Plans to expand further into Westfield are well underway and a branch is expected to be open by the end of 2018. Additional information can be found at www.cfbindiana.com.
